AN ARMY WITHOUT BANNERS.

STRIKERS INVADE WHEELING, W. VA., PEACEFULLY.

Most of Them From Ohio--Came for the Purpose of Closing Down a Coal Mine.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Wheeling was peacefully invaded by an army of striking miners from Ohio at 3 o'clock this morning. The men came for the purpose of closing down the Boggsrun mine, which is the only railroad mine in the Wheeling district now in operation.

They announce that they would stay until the Boggsrun miners join the strike. Two hundred others from Barton, Maynard, Pascoe and other mining communities of eastern Ohio, will join the Wheeling Creek men today at Boggsrun mines. Men from the Wheeling Lake mines also announce their intention to participate in this demonstration, which may last several days.

With the West Virginia strikers gathering at Boggsrun are now about 400 men already there. In the face of this showing, 100 of Boggs' miners did not put in their appearance this morning. Eight or ten came to work, but nobody had the courage to enter the mine.

A meeting will probably be held late today, but it will be difficut to get the men at this plant out. The miners are provisioned from the Wheeling Strikers Aid Store and are prepared to make a long stay.

At a meeting of the Peddling Bank Miners, at Bellaire, a motion to shut down was passed with some difficulty. If these mines shut down it will throw some 2,000 men out of employment at Bellaire, for these banks supply fuel to the manufacturers of that place.

COSERVATITES TO CONTROL.

This the Interpretation of Sagasta's Declaration.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

MADRID, Aug. 10.—It is reported here that Senor Segasta has declared that the country's life must not be made to depend upon the act of a murderer. This remark is regarded as indicating Sagasta's acquiescence in the continuation of Canova's policy and that the conservatives will remain in power.

The Queen Regent and her court will return from San Sebastian to Madrid in September.

Drops 3000 Feet on a Bicycle.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—A London parachutist made a descent of three thousand feet on a bicycle parachute, which was opened by an apparatus worked by means of pedalling.

STRIKERS DIVIDING.

Will Seperate Their Forces and Invest Three Mines.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 10.—The strikers at Turtle Creek have divided into three parts and will march on several mines now operating. One party will go to Spring Hlll mine near Wilmerding; this mine has been supplying the De Armitt Company with coal, another party will march on Oak Hill mines, while the third will go to Sandy Creek.

The Boon, at Canonburg started, unexpectedly yesterday with a force of thirty-five men; today a force of about eight hundred will march and encamp about this mine until it shuts down.

King Milan Ill.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

VIENNA, Aug.—Ex-King Milan, of Servia, is so seriously ill that great anxiety is felt by his friends as to his eventual covery.

Oh! the Beautiful Nights.

These beautiful moonlight nights are the very thing for our courting young people. But they should be more careful how they sit on the front step and "hold hands." It might Leak out,

MILITIA ORDERED OUT.

The Governor of Florida Takes Steps to Make Law Respected.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 10.—The governor has ordered Adjutant General Houston of the State militia to proceed to St. Augustine. The companies have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to go to Key West at a moment's notice, in case their presence should be necessary at the trial of the negro Johnson, who is charged with assault.

Johnson's case comes up at this term of court and has been set for tomorrow.

At the preliminary hearing in June an attempt was made to lynch him and the result was a negro riot, at which one man was killed.

Train Wreckers at Work.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

FEMINGTON, N. J., Aug. 10.—After three unsuccessful attempts, train wreckers succeeded this morning in derailing a freight train on the White House railroad. The engine and five cars were thrown from the track and several cars smashed. No clue as yet to the perpetrators of the deed.

CONDITION OF COTTON CROP.

Better than Average for Ten Years---Virginia in the Lead.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The returns for cotton to the department of agriculture, published today, indicates the average condition as 86.9 August 1, as compared with 86 on July 1. Increased nine-tenths, one point. Average condition August 1, 1996, 80.1. Average condition August 1, for last ten years, 86.1. There has been decided improvement in Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, where the conditions advanced ten, seven and six points respectively. In the lower Mississippi Valley the improvements are much less marked. In Texas there is a decline of ten points. Averages of the States are as follows: Virginia, 99; North Carolina, 97; South Carolina, 92; Georgia, 95: Florida, 88; Alabama, 88; Mississippi, 85; Louisiana, 90; Texas, 78; Arkansas, 90; Tennessee, 84; Missouri, 85; Indian Territory, 94.

Off for the Tournament.

The running team of the Excelsior Hose Company, composed of thirteen men, went to Winston this morning to attend the colored firemen's convention and tournament.

We hope the unlucky "No. 13" will have no bad effect on the Excelsior boys, but that they will come back with their share of the prizes.

The colored people will run an excursion to Winston Thursday and the indications are that they will carry a large crowd.

Wiley Keith Improving.

The Winston Journal says that Wiley Keith, who was seriously injured in the celebration of the firemen's return to Winston the other night, is improving. It is thought that he will be able to leave the hospital in a few days. His eyes, which were thought to be permanently injured, are getting all right and it is thought that they are not permanently impaired.

Time Extended.

We learn that the time granted Governor Russell and Attorney General Walser to introduce evidence of fraud before Hon. Kerr Craig, referee in the North Carolina railroad lease matter, has been extended until the 15th of October.

The Southern railroad has been granted the same length of time to introduce rebutting evidence.

Biblical Institute.

The Biblical Institute will convene at Guilford College tomorrow morning at 9:45 o'clock. Many of the most prominent ministers and laymen of the Friends' church will attend.

Joseph Peele will deliver the address of welcome, and Rev. Joseph Potts, pastor of the Friends church of this city, will speak on the "Gift of the Holy Ghost." J. W. Malone and William Pinkham are others who will deliver addresses.

Col. John N. Staples is attending Forsyth county court at Winston.

PULLING UP THEIR STAKES.

THE STREET RAILWAY TRACKS MUST GO, IT SEEMS.

City Authorities Put On a Coat of War Paint, and Go After the Street Railway.

Some things have a beginning and no ending, and they are mostly tiresome; and some have an end and no beginning, and they, chiefly, are not. But our street railway, that has been languishing in that state described by G. C. as innocuous desuetude, stranded high and dry on a shingly beach where the receding wave of a too previous boom left it, as a memento of dollars and hopes that once were but have not been for some time now, this railroad hath two ends to it, or an end and a beginning, as you choose. One end of this railway, up to the court house, belongs to Mr. Cone, and when Mayor Nelson and Street Commissioner Pickard, looking at this work, said it was no good and asked that they be permitted to pluck it up by the roots, Mr. Cone did not say them nay; but the other end of this railway belongs to the Greensboro Street Railway Co., and when a like request was made to them they paid no attention to it, either then or thereafter. They considered it their work and did not wish it plucked up or otherwise, probably considering that enough plucking had been done on that head.

So taking this huge slab of silence as the proverb advises, the Mayor and Street Commissioner let slip the picks of war and began to encroach upon the privileges and properties of said company. Now this company had not consented any worth mentioning and, being a bloated corporation, it instructed its head, Judge Douglas, to go say nit to Mayor Nelson and Street Commissioner Pickard, and Judge Douglas said nit in the proper and legal way. And the picks ceased picking for a time; a confabulation was held and it was decided that to do things by halves was a poor way, so to speak, and the war paint being on, and the thirst for ties and rails and spikes being a raging one, the work of destruction was resumed.

Now an attorney tells this scribe, that there is a section of the statutes of North Carolina which declares, that any one interfering with the property of this company shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court. Beside there is ground for a suit for damages, and this man, learned in the law, says a suit of that nature will probably be brought.

And so the street railway will probably have three ends and this one will be a finis, but the end of that damage suit is not yet visible.

The Love of God.

Mr. Lee took his text last night from I John 4:8—"God is Love." A good crowd was out to hear him, and he preached a powerful sermon, full of deep thought, tenderness and pathos.

There were eleven conversions, beside quite a number who asked for prayers.

The interest appears to keep up well, and the present indications are that the meeting will not close before the latter part of the week.

Mr. Lee had intended preaching a sermon on "Conscience" last night, but deferred it until tonight.

The Asheville Excursion.

The Southern's personally conducted excursion from Raleigh to Asheville got in this morning at 10 o'clock; coming in on schedule time, which is something unusual for an excursion.

Rather a small crowd was on board, though they appeared to be enjoying themselves very much.

Traveling Passenger Agent Vernon was along looking after the comfort and pleasure of the passengers.

Stole a Bike.

J. H. Wall, a contractor who resides at 231 Lewis street, is mourning the loss of a good wheel, which was stolen about noon yesterday.

Mr. Wall left his wheel in a horse stall on the lot, and when he came out from dinner the bike was gone.

It is not known who stole it, but it went toward High Point.

Register of Deeds Kirkman came to town today for the first time in quite a while. His many friends are glad to see him and to learn that his health, which has been bad all this year, is improving.

J. H. Millis, of High Point, is in the city today.

State Sunday School Association.

The Fifteenth Annual Convention of the North Carolina Sunday School Association will be held in Winston on the 24th, 25th and 26th of this month. The convention will be attended by Mr. P. H. Bristow, a member of the International Executive Committee, Superintendent of Cavalry Baptist Sunday School, Washington, D. C., who will deliver an address Tuesday evening, August 24th, on the "Advance line of Sunday School work," and will conduct a Sunday School Institute Session Wednesday afternoon. Addresses will also be delivered by Dr. John C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, and Professor J. Y. Joyner, of the State Normal College. Other prominent Sunday School leaders will discuss topics of much interest to those engaged in, or in touch with, the cause of Bible instruction.

Entertainment will be provided for the delegates. Reduced railroad rates will be secured over all transportation lines. Many county and township Sunday School conventions are being held in different portions of the State, and there has been considerable advancement in Sunday School methods and interest in the work during the past year. These township, county and State conventions are proving to be very helpful to those who attend them; and through them the schools of the state are greatly stimulated and benefitted. It is confidentially expected that the approaching State convention will be the best one ever held in the State.

A Greensboro Boy Elected.

At the annual meeting of the Winston graded school board, Saturday night, David B. Smith, of this city, was elected teacher for the seventh grade of the Winston graded school.

Mr. Smith is a son of Mr. John Y. Smith, who resides on Arlington street, and is a young man of excellent parts. He graduated at the University last June, taking a high stand in his classes.

He represented his society in the great inter-state debate between the University of North Carolina and the University of Georgia at Athens last spring, and while his side of the question was defeated, his is said to have been decidedly the finest speech made on the occasion. The Atlanta Constitution and the Journal, as well as other papers, spoke of it in the highest terms.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1897.

THE REMEDY FUTILE.

Hardly a day passes that our dispatches do not contain an account of a negro lynched for assault. The frequency of the crime, and the swift and terrible retribution that follows it, has grown from week to week as the summer advances; yesterday Georgia alone furnished two instances. It is only on rare occasions that any negro guilty of the crime reaches even an examining trial; in the majority of cases he does not live twenty-four hours.

The apologists of the lynchers are wont to say that lynching is the only effectual way of combatting the growth of this heinous offence against civilization. Do the facts of the last two weeks show lynching to be effective? Despite the summary justice meted out, the crime is increasing. We have no means of knowing whether or not the courts would be more effective, for the reason that they have not been given a chance. This we do know: Lawlessness begets lawlessness. If the whites show contempt for law and order, they need not expect the negroes to do better. The whites have made the laws and if they break them with impunity the negro argues that he may do the same.

The crime, to be sure, is the worst that can be committed; undoubtedly the impulse of every community is to lynch the guilty party: but law, not impulse, must govern if our civilization is to be preserved.

The lynching spirit grows with the meat that it feeds upon. Now it confines itself to assault, by and by it will extend to other crimes, encroaching more and more upon the province of the courts. It is no excuse to say the offender deserves instant death; every man knows that a negro guilty of this offense has not the remotest chance to escape justice at the hands of any jury ever empanelled in the South.

It cannot be justified on the grounds of necessity; the law speaks in no uncertain tone; whatever may be its shortcomings in other respects, in this its rigorous execution is certain.

When a negro is lynched he becomes, to a certain extent, a martyr to race prejudice in the eyes of his ignorant fellows; he enlists their sympathy, and from sympathy with crime it is only a step to the commission of the crime itself.

The case of the negro brought from Kittrell to Raleigh shows their feeling in the matter. No Southerner can fail to understand the point of view of the lyncher; no Southerner can feel a thrill of sympathy for the victim of the lyncher, when his guilt is certain, but every intelligent Southerner must understand that the reflex influence of these affairs is bad—deplorably bad—on the community where they occur and on the whole population of the section, both white and colored.

If the press of the South had condemned the crime of lynching years ago, it would be of rare occurrence and, if the laws of history go for anything, the crime that precipitates lynching would be less frequent. We could well afford the opprobrium brought upon us by our lynchings, if they could be shown to prevent the crime at which they are aimed, but when they tend rather to increase it, we cannot afford it.

To say that the way to stop the lynching is to stop the crime that occasions it, is simply nonsense. If that be logic, why not allow an irresponsible mob to string up every man arraigned on a capital charge, without further ceremony? We have seen, with surprise, papers of high standing and wide influence condoning, if not upholding, this irresponsible method of taking human life; a method that, whatever the cause, is brutalizing to the participants, and to the people who are taught that it is justifiable, and directly subversive of law and order. Lynching has neither foundation in reason nor justification in necessity.

THE death of Senor Canovas, noted in yesterday's dispatches, is under the present circumstances, an irreparable loss for Spain. There is absolutely no man to take his place. A man of sound judgment, a great diplomat, devoted to the reigning house and bent upon subjugating Cuba at any cost of money and human life, he has carried Spain upon his shoulders for the past year. None beside are broad enough for the burden. The logical outcome of the tragedy would be the collapse of Spain and the liberation of Cuba. His great rival and probable successor, Segasta, said of him, "he was content to be the minister of a King, without being a ministerthe of people."

ONE of our exchanges makes the startling statement that "times are good in Wall Street." Let the country rejoice. Now, indeed, must the winter of our discontent be preparing to yield as gracefully as possible to a genial thaw, and the sun of prosperity get in its shines. We have not the least objection to times being good in the street, if the street will push 'em along!

BOBBY FITZSIMMONS has been setting all Newport society agog and was overwhelmed with invitations to drive and dine with that select aggregation. He was introduced to Hon. Chauncey Depew. For once Bobbie met a foeman worthy of his wind. In the noble art of jawing, Chauncey can hold his own even with the blacksmith-pugilist.

IT is reported that 300,000 people left New York last Sunday. Chicago should have taken advantage of that occasion to declare herself the municipal metropolis of the ranch.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

What the Brethren of the Press Have to Say About Us.

The initial number of THE GREENSBORO EVENING TELEGRAM, a new venture in the jornalistic field, is a four page six column paper of a very creditable appearance. Its columns are full of bright, breezy, local, state and general news. It is edited by Mr. C. P. Sapp. Here's to THE TELEGNAM. May it live long and prosper.—Winston Journal.

The initial number of Greensboro's new afternoon daily, THE EVENING TELEGRAM, made its appearance Saturday. It is bright and newsy and attractive. It is published by the Telegram Publishimg Co., of which Mr. C. G. Wright is President and Mr. Jos. J. Stone, Business Manager. Mr. C. P. Sapp is the editor.—Winston Sentinel.

The first copy of THE GREENSBORO EVENING TELEGRAM is to hand. It is a handsome six-column folio, carrying a pony press report, full local news, well written editorial and miscellany. It is published by THE TELEGRAM publishing Campany, of which C. G. Wright is president and Jos. J. Stone business manager. C. P. Sapp is the editor and, the paper certainly makes a promising beginning.—Charlotte Observer.

The Greensboro Telegram.

Chief Stone—among his other good qualities one of the best all-around newspaper men in the State—has handed us the first copy of THE GREENSBORO EVENING TELEGRAM, of which he and Mr. C. G, Wright are the publishers, editorially assisted by Mr. Sapp. Typographically, the paper is "a thing of beauty," while its editorial and news columns are full of wholesome meat. The launching out is auspicious: may the bark meet smooth seas and favorable winds!—Firemen's Special, Fayetteville.

Arms for the Insurgents.

The Treasury Department has received an intimation from the Spanish minister that a cargo of arms and ammunition has been shipped from New York to Bridgeport, Conn., whence it is said it is to be transferred to a vessel, supposed to be the Douglass, for shipment to the Cuban insurgents. The customs officials have been instructed to see to it that the laws of the United States are not violated.

CUBA LOST TO SPAIN.

European Diplomats Think Canovas' Death Means Good-by to the Island.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Everywhere is conceded here the importance the sad catastrophe will have on the Cuban question. Canovas has long been looked upon in Europe as the one master hand holding the island to Spain.

Cuba, it is now universally admitted, is lost to Spain forever. The desperate diplomacy and judicious internal government which have kept rein on the island battling for liberty, are now ended for all time. There is no man in Spain, so say the famous diplomats here, who can take up the lines where Canovas left off. It is good-by to Cuba forever, and that very soon.

Much comment is raised here by the fact that both recent assassinations, that of Sadi Carnot by knife and this of Canovas, have been brought about by Italians. Caserio, who killed Carnot, was an Italian, and this new assassin, Golli, alias Rinaldi, makes his first boast that he is an Italian, that he is of the country of Columbus and Garibaldi; next, that the deed has been done in the general cause of libcity and anarchy.

Only a few days ago the Courier de Lyon published a long interview with an Italian Anarchist, who stated he was on his way to London to see the Spanish Anarchists and thence was going to Madrid.

In a few days, he said, the world would ring with news as great as that of the death of President Carnot. It is claimed by the Spanish police that the man in the interview is the same as the assassin; hence, the tacking on of the name of Michele Augine Golli against the name Rinaldi, given by the murderer when arrested.

Advices from Paris tonight say that France looks upon the affair as significant of the downfall of the Spanish monarchy. The Paris police have been on the track of Golli since the article in the Courier de Lyon.

Cuba, say the French, as they do in London, is lost to Spain, whether by annexation of the United States or by the withdrawal of Spanish troops. A famous diplomat in Paris in an interview, says Segasta will immediately come back in power, and that, ere long a Spanish Republic will be inaugurated.

Doctor Found Dead.

AUBURN, N. Y., August 8.—The body of Dr. Arthur S. Kennedy, aged about fifty-five years, a retired eye and ear and throat specialist, was found this afternoon about four miles north of this city.

He left home about 5 o'clock this morning to go hunting, and his death is supposed to have resulted through the accidental discharge of his gun, inflicting a wound just above the knee from which he bled to death. When found, a handkerchief was sticking to the wound, which he had used to stop the flow of blood.

Gnawed Themselves Loose.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Geo. Stile,s a farmer, residing near this village, was overpowered last night by a gang of five masked men. He resisted and was shot in the thigh. The robbers then bound and gagged Stiles, another man, a woman and a boy, secured a watch and between $40 and $70 in money from their pockets and a safe and escaped.

The victims finally gnawed the cord loose, which bound them, and gave the alarm. It is thought the robbers might be the same gang that murdered a man at Corning on Friday night, but no clews have yet been discovered.

Some Lively Chickens.

B. E. Smith, who resides on West Bragg street, has a lot of young chickens that have just been weaned by their mother hen. Mr. Smith is telling a pretty steep yarn about these chicks, but 'tis true—every word of it.

He says that during the cold rain Friday these young chickens sought shelter at a place where they were not well protected from the rain. Late in the afternoon Mr. Smith's cook found them cold and stiff in death—as she thought. They were picked up and thrown out of the way, where they lay until a neighbor lady, who is a great chicken fancier, saw them. This good lady took them up and bathed them in warm water, after which they were placed under a stove. After some time they began to show signs of life, finally coming around all right. And now Mr. Smith says they are decidedly the livest chickens on his place.

Dutch Dames and Knights.

We notice in the Washington papers of Saturday out an account of the annual meeting of the Holland Dames and Knights held in that city last week, and that our city was honored by them by the election of Mr. Chas. L. Van Noppen as an officer for the en suing year.

This is a very exclusive society—membership being based purely on Dutch ancestors and their annual reception which is to be held in the Waldorf parlors, New York—next January will be one of the most brilliant social events in the metropolis.

STATE NEWS.

Charlotte police have captured a man of many aliases and he is supposed to be a crook with many charges over against him in various parts of the country.

The Charlotte News prints the following extract from a private letter of Rev. J. W. Stagg, of that city, who is in Berlin: "America is the place to live; the rest of the world will do well enough to visit. I will be content to stay in Charlotte when I get back. Most of the talk about this country is by people who have never seen America. Men are counted nothing. A man is the cheapest thing in Germany—except, perhaps, a woman. Religion is not much in the life of these people. Everything is formal. Martin Luther could keep himself busy here for many years could the old fellow come back again. Give my regards to all."

A horse ran away in Selma yesterday seriously injuring Mrs. L. H. Neal and little girl. The girl had an arm broken and Mrs. Neal was badly cut about the face and head.

The "Fats" and "Leans" of Concord are to play base ball and it promises to be a very amusing affair.

The premium list for the next State Fair is out and it announces over $5,000 in premiums for the various departments. Over $2,000 will be given as premiums for the races.

The forger, W. H. Smith, who worked various towns in North Carolina, this among others, has been captured at Sedalia, Missouri. He registered there as H. H. Watson and son and represented himself as a drummer for Vicksburg Rubber Works. He had as confederate when captured a man named Fagin. Advices say that the case against him in Missouri is such that he cannot possibly escape the penitentiary.

NUTSHELL NEWS.

A New York man has invented a new method of committing suicide. He stuck his head between two strands of barbed wire on a fence and choked himself to death.

Felts, a daring aeronaut will attempt to fly over Pike's Peak to Colorado Springs.

Dr. Simpson, of New York, raised $71,000 for missions at a camp meeting at Old Orchard, Maine. This amount was contributed at two collections.

The Czar of Russia and Emperor William of Germany have met and constituted themselves the preservers of the peace in Europe. It is worth while noting that the peace pledge is backed by 9,000,000 fighting men.

The Delaware Iron Works, employing 400 men, are preparing to resume work.

The attempt is being made by Governor Bushnell to oust the sheriff and mayor at Urbana, Ohio, for permitting the lynching of the negro there.

The Socialists of Philadelphia will put a full ticket in the field for municipal offices.

The Uniformity Agreement.

CLEVELANND, O., Aug. 9.—J. B. Zerbe, the Cleveland members of the True University committee of operators, received a copy of the official agreement and started at once in search of representatives of mines in the Pittsburg field. He secured the signatures of the Moon Run Coal Co., M. A. Hanna & Co., Pickards, Mather & Co., Osborne, Seagar & Co. and Walsh Upstill Coal Company. The Cleveland operators are in favor of any scheme that will bring about the uniformity in the Pennsylvania field and an improvement in the condition of the miners. They are satisfied, however, that the agreement will have no bearing on the strike question.

No Protectorate.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Secretary Sherman tonight denied the recent statements from San Francisco that Minister Sewall had instructions to establish a protectorate over Hawaii, in the event the Senate failed to ratify the annexation treaty.

Secretary Sherman said that the United States would not guarantee the carrying out of the terms of arbitration between Hawaii and Japan if the decision of the arbitrators was against the former. That was a matter between the countries interested.

A BIG DAY WAS LAST SUNDAY

THE CLOING SCENES OF THE HIGH POINT YEARLY MEETING.

Estimated to Have Been Three Thousand Visitors Present--Local and Personal Matters.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Aug. 10, '97.

The day of all days in the year for High Point has come and gone.

The town, perhaps, held 3,000 visitors Sunday.

The speakers for the morning were Wm. Pinkham and others to one congregation, Meade Kelsey and others to another, and Amos Kenworthy and others at the tent. There was a spiritual feast spread out before every hungry soul. What Amos Kenworthy says is always refreshing, original and practical, and while he stated last night that he could not get a congregation that would sit as long as he would preach, he certainly had a great many hearers who would like to try it. There is one good brother among the representatives who hardly ever says anything himself, but he always begins to nod assent and to laugh as soon as he sees that the spirit has moved Amos to speak.

There was a meeting of representatives at 8:30 Saturday morning. Objection being raised to the disposition of the trip fund, a fund now used at Guilford College, and in the hands of the trustees, it was decided to allow each quarterly meeting to determine what disposition should be made of its proportional part of this fund, whether it be used for schools in that quarter or for Guilford College. The desire was expressed that each quarterly meeting should establish a school or academy as a feeder for Guilford College.

Meeting for business convened at 10 o'clock. Prayer by David Simpson. Fifth annual report of Friends Orphanage was read, showing 20 children in the home and that homes had been secured for eleven. Among these orphans only two are Friends' children, all the others being from other denominations. $1,161 has been raised from various resources and there is a balance of $23.10 on hand. Upon recommendation $150 was appropriated and a collection taken in the face of the meeting. $266 was raised, being $66 more than was requested. Great commendation was expressed as to the management and care of the home. The children were present and they sang some songs and recited a few selections.

Report of treasurer of yearly meeting was read and report and recommendations therein contained were accepted. Wm. Parker was appointed treasurer for the ensuing year.

Satisfactory arrangements were made for the transfer of Friendsville quarterly meeting to the Wilmington yearly meeting.

The question of selling grain to distillers was discussed and a committee was appointed to formulate a discipline covering the case.

Committee reported that it should be a disownable offense.

At the afternoon session the Indian affairs came up. Reports showed that much good has been done.

Committee on charities was accepted.

The Report of Guilford College was taken up. Reports from president, treasurer and advisary committee were not. The attendance at the school during the past year has been smaller, but the work done has been of a higher quality than formerly. Reports shows good influence of Y. M. C. A., Christian Endeavor and Bible study classes. The financial condition of the college is good and some of the indebtedness had been paid off. The farm is in a prosperous condition, having cleared $1,000 the past year. Through the kindness of B. N. and J. B. Duke a new building has been donated to the college, known as the Science Hall. It will have laboratories, gymnasium, president's office, etc.

The president reported that the influence of the college was such that it was easy to do right and hard to do wrong.

The girls aid fund has kept six girls at college all the time. Several thousand dollars has been spent aiding needy girls. A collection was taken up for this fund, and $236 was raised.

Misses Bertha and Della Edgerton returned to their home at Guilford College this morning. They have made many friends in High Point, who regret to see them leave.

Monday's Proceedings,

Reports of various committees continued to be read yesterday. During the discussion causes by the report of the Committee for the Suppression of the Liquor Traffic, Rev. Jas. R. Jones said that since 1822, 175,000 Christians had been killed by the Turks in Armenia, and we all sympathized with them. In the same length of time liquor has killed 3,900,000, and we have shed no tears and furnished no money for them.

The question of sending delegates to the Conference of Friends, to be held in Indianapolis, was discussed and $150 was appropriated for that purpose.

A committee was appointed to draw up a memorial from the North Carolina Yearly Meeting to the President and Congress of the United States on the subject of international arbitration.

When the report of Guilford College was read Saturday some discussion was brought out upon the question of accepting money from the Dukes. Abram Fisher called it "blood money." The opposition to this gift, however, was not strong. Yesterday afternoon Wm. Pinkham made a few remarks bearing on that line of thought though he stated he had no reference to the case in question as he was not familiar with the particulars. He said: "I hope our friends will always be careful in regard to receiving gifts from questionable persons—persons whose means for obtaining wealth are not what we can sanction. * * * We can afford to be poor a great deal better than we can afford to lose our integrity."

When the business was over, several of the visitors made very appropriate remarks of farewell. Rev. M. A. Kelsey also made a short talk. At a few minutes to five o'clock the congregation joined in "God be with you till we meet again," after which the meeting concluded, "to meet at the usual time and place next year, if the Lord permit."

THE TELEGRAM'S subscription list here continues to grow.

We have formed many new acquaintances during the yearly meeting and it is with sadness that we see them depart for their respective homes.

Copies of THE TELEGRAM containing accounts of the yearly meeting can be had at this office at two cents a copy.

It is learned that G. T. Marley, of Marbury's Mill, is on the verge of matrimony. All the old sports will join us in congratulations and best wishes for future happiness. The lady in the case comes from Chatham county.

The Enterpsise learns that Rev. J. C. Troy, of Fayetteville, will shortly make High Point his home.

John Mock, of Thomasville, was in the city yesterday.

LOCAL NEWS.

The colored fire company from Salisbury passed through today en route to their tournament at Winston.

A telegram received from Lexington this morning states that Miss Bessie Watson, who has been so extremely ill, is thought to be improving.

Darden apologizes to the people who could not be waited on in his store on Saturday night, and requests them to call again. He wants every one to get a pair of those shoes, and kindly asks them to call again. He says the shoes must go by September 1st.

We are glad to learn that Dr. J. P. Turner, who recently located in our midst for the practice of medicine, is building up a good practice. He is a graduate of one of the leading medical colleges of the country, has had three years experience in a large hospital in one of our northern cities and is well prepared for the prosecution of his profession.

Off on a Pleasant Trip.

A happy party, composed of Prof. and Mrs. Dred Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Odell, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Odell, of Concord, left on the Chattanooga limited this morning on a trip to several places of note in the North and through a portion of Canada.

They will spend some time at Thousand Islands, Montreal and Quebec, and on their return expect to stop over at Saratoga and New York city. They will be absent about three weeks.

This is the first pleasure trip President Peacock has taken in ten years, and he says that it was necessary for him to go out of the United States to take this, for should he hear of a girl anywhere in reach who was thinking of going to college he would go to see her.

A Smart Girl.

The women of Greensboro are noted for their shrewdness and industry lent one of the most industrious ladies. We have heard of a girl who holds the position of typewriter and stenographer in one of the down-town offices.

This particular young lady, in addition to her duties at the office, is house-keeper, looking after all the domestic affairs of her home. In addition to the qualifications named, she is good looking.

In His New Office..

United States District Attorney Holton, who was here yesterday, says he has moved into his new quarters and has everything moving along smoothly. S. T. Neal, one of the clerks under Col. Glenn, is still in the office. Walter Nading, the other clerk, handed in his resignation when the new attorney took charge.

P. C. Enniss, of Raleigh, was here last night.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING

OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT HELD LAST NIGHT.

Exhibition of Races to be Given Soon. A Resignation Asked For—Committees Appointed.

The city fire department held an important meeting last night, at which matters of vital importance to the department were discussed.

One of the most important matters discussed was the advisability of sending only a portion of the department to tournaments in the future. It was thought by many that this would be a good move, as it would lessen the expense considerably, besides leaving greater protection at home. There were some who differed from this opinion, however, and a committee was appointed to investigate the matter and report later.

It was decided by the department to give an exhibition of the contests as they occurred at the Fayetteville tournament. The races will take place on West Market street at an early date, due notice of which will be given.

A committee was appointed to wait on and ask for the resignation of Jno. W. Thomas, who sued the city for damages alleged to have been sustained in responding to an alarm of fire.
